

SAVE THE LAKES ANNUAL MEETING 2024

May 20, 2024 - 6:00 PM

Cranston Central Library, 140 Sockanosset Cross Rd. Cranston, RI 02920

Saving Our Lakes: Successes, Challenges & Opportunities

THIS MEETING IS INTENDED FOR THOSE WHO CARE ABOUT THEIR LAKES AND ARE SEEKING WAYS TO PRESERVE THEM

MEET DEM LEADERS & OTHERS INTERESTED IN FIGHTING FOR HEALTHY LAKES

SHARE INFORMATION & ASK QUESTIONS

LEARN ABOUT:

- Successes achieved in the past year
- Hydrilla, the deadliest weed ever - it's already in some RI lakes; is your lake next?
- Stormwater Management: A New Approach for Lakes
- URI's Watershed Watch Program and its Decades of Data that can help your lake
- Grants & Funding Opportunities - currently available and upcoming
- Important Legislation - current & pending

STL DUES: $25 for individuals, $50 for an Association

If you have not yet done so, please plan to pay your dues at this meeting, or send a check to:

Save the Lakes, 61 Wood Rd., Chepachet, RI 02814

ATTN: Treasurer

Save the Lakes (STL) is your statewide association dedicated to the preservation of RI's lakes & ponds. With 1200+ signatures, spoken as one voice, the legislature responded.

Together, we can achieve far beyond individual efforts.

We hope you will join us for this important meeting.

If you have questions, please contact Judy Colaluca, Co-founder & President of STL colalucajudy@gmail.com or (401) 486-8414